

Climbing Bear

After you carefully cut out your bear, fold each hand at the dotted lines as shown and attach with tape or a staple. This will make "hands" for the bear to grip the string with.

You can use a single length of string hooked over a door knob or construct a cross bar arrangement as shown below.

For best results print this template on light card.

